12 TAG-ALONG RIGHT

- 12.1 Subject to the provisions of Articles 10 (Standstill), 11 (Pre-Emption Right), 14 (Permitted Transfers) and 17 (Liquidation Preference), if one or more Shareholders intend Transfer Shares in aggregate representing less than 25% (twenty-five per cent) of the corporate capital of the Company to a Potential Transferee, after having received the Pre-Emption Notice and as an alternative to use the Pre-Emption Right, the Angel Investors, in the cases set forth under (a) and (b) below, or all Other Shareholders in the case of (b) below, may request in writing, within the Pre-Emption Exercise Period, the Transferring Shareholder, who must consent thereto, to procure the Transfer to the Potential Transferee (the "Tag-Along Right") of:
- (a) the Shares owned by the Angel Investors using the Tag-Along Right in proportion to the Shares to Transfer, if the Shares to Transfer are less than or equal to 50% of the corporate capital of the Company; or
 - (b) the entire Shares of the Shareholders using the Tag-Along Right, if the Shares to Transfer represent more than 50% of the corporate capital of the Company;
- all under the same terms and conditions as the Transferring Shareholders, subject to the distribution of the consideration for the Transfer, which shall take place in accordance with the provisions of Article 17 (Liquidation Preference) below.
- 12.2 In the event of the exercise of the Tag-Along Right, in the case referred to in (a) or (b) of Paragraph 12.1 above:
- (a) the Other Shareholder who has exercised such right shall be obliged, at the same time as the transfer by the Transferring Shareholders of the Shares to Transfer to the Potential Transferee, to proceed to the transfer of all or part of its Shares to the Potential Transferee, under the same terms and conditions as the Transferring Shareholders, by signing every contract, deed and document and by performing any other act necessary for this purpose;

Otherwise, the Transfer in favour of the Potential Transferee shall not take place.
- 12.3 If the consideration offered by the Potential Transferee for the purchase of the Shares to Transfer does not exist, cannot be determined for any reason whatsoever or does not consist, in whole or in part, of money, the Shareholders who have exercised the Tag-Along Right shall have the right to request that it be determined by a third arbitrator pursuant to article [●] of the company law of [COUNTRY], appointed by the President of the Court of the place where the Company has its seat.
- 12.4 The formalisation of the Transfer of the Shares of the Shareholders who have exercised the Tag-Along Right to the Potential Transferee shall take place on the same day and place as the transfer of the Shares to Transfer to the Potential Transferee.

Transfer to the Potential Transferee the Share to Transfer, on the same terms and conditions as set out in the Pre-Emption Notice.

- 12.6 In the event that, even after any notice of exercise of the Tag-Along Right, the Transfer of the Shares to Transfer does not take place for any reason whatsoever, within and no later than 90 (ninety) Business Days from the date of expiration of the Pre-Emption Exercise Period (or, if applicable of obtaining the last authorisation and/or authorisation required by law and/or applicable regulations), the Transferring Shareholder(s), if it intends to Transfer to a Potential Transferee the Shares to Transfer, shall have to carry out again the procedure provided for in this Article 12 in order to allow the Angel Investor(s) and, as the case may be, the other Shareholders to exercise the Tag-Along Right.

13 DRAG-ALONG RIGHT

- 13.1 Notwithstanding the provisions set forth in the previous Articles 10 (Standstill), 11 (Pre-Emption Right), 12 (Tag-Along Right) and 14 (Permitted Transfers), in the event that (i) a substantial majority of the Shareholders, who jointly hold at least 70% (seventy per cent) of the corporate capital of the Company including at least the Shareholders Reinforced Majority (the “Dragging Shareholders”) receive and decide to accept a purchase offer from Potential Transferee for the entire their Shares, the Dragging Shareholders shall have the right to request and obtain, in order to satisfy the request of the Potential Transferee, that all other Shareholders (the “Dragged Shareholders”) sell to the aforementioned Potential Transferee all their Shares (the “Dragged Shares”) under the same terms and conditions offered to the Dragging Shareholders (the “Drag-Along Right”), all subject to the following terms and conditions:
- (a) the Drag-Along Right must be exercised by the Dragging Shareholders by sending the Pre-Emption Notice to the Dragged Shareholders, specifying the intention of the Dragging Shareholders to exercise the Drag-Along Right, the name and identification data of the Potential Transferee, the sale price and, where possible and already determined, the other terms and conditions of the sale (the “Drag-Along Notice”);
 - (b) the sale of the Dragged Shareholders’ Shares in favour of the Potential Transferee, in case of valid exercise of the Drag-Along Right, must take place for a consideration equal, on a pro-quota basis, to that offered to the Dragging Shareholders by the Potential Transferee and indicated in the Pre-Emption Notice (the “Transfer Consideration”); the execution of the sale and payment of the consideration must take place contextually at the same time for the Dragging Shareholders and the Dragged Shareholders and under the same terms and conditions;
 - (c) in the event that any Dragged Shareholder considers that the Transfer Consideration calculated on the basis of a valuation of 100% (one hundred per cent) of the Company’s corporate capital is lower than the Market Value, the interested Dragged Shareholder may send to the Dragging Shareholders, within 10 (ten) Business Days from receipt of the Drag-Along Notice, by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt or certified email, a written objection (hereinafter, the “Notice of Objection”). In the event that no Notice of Objection is sent within the above term of 10 (ten) Business Days, the Drag-Along Right shall be deemed to have been validly exercised at a fair price and the Dragged Shareholders shall be obliged to transfer all their Shares to the Potential

Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this Article 13. Otherwise, in case the Notice of Objection is sent within the above term, the following procedure shall apply:

- (i) within 10 (ten) Business Days from the date of receipt by the last Selling Shareholder of the Notice of Objection, the Dragging Shareholders and the interested Dragged Shareholder shall appoint the Expert for the purpose of determining the Market Value;
- (ii) in the event that the Market Value determined by the Expert on the basis of a valuation of 100% (one hundred per cent) of the corporate capital of the Company on a fully diluted basis is equal to or lower than the Transfer Consideration, the Drag-Along Right shall be deemed to have been validly exercised at a fair price and the Dragged Shareholders (including the objecting Dragged Shareholder) shall be obliged to transfer all their Shares to the Potential Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this Article 13. In such event, the Expert's costs shall be deemed to be borne by the objecting Dragged Shareholder;
- (iii) in the event that the Market Value determined by the Expert on the basis of a valuation of 100% (one hundred per cent) of the corporate capital of the Company on a fully diluted basis is higher than the Transfer Consideration, the Drag-Along Right shall be deemed not to have been validly exercised at a fair price and the Dragged Shareholders (including the objecting Dragged Shareholder) shall not be obliged to transfer their Dragged Shares to the Potential Purchaser, unless the Dragging Shareholders, at their own discretion, within the term of 10 (ten) Business Days from the Expert's decision, notifies the Dragged Shareholders of their binding commitment to pay to the Dragged Shareholders the difference between the Market Value determined by the Expert and the Transfer Consideration relating to the Dragged Shares. It is understood that, in both the above cases, the Expert's costs shall be borne by the Dragging Shareholders proportionally to their participation in the corporate capital of the Company;
- (iv) in the event that the Drag-Along Right is exercised and the relevant conditions are met, the Dragged Shareholders shall be obliged to sell to Potential Purchaser, jointly with all the Shares of the Dragging Shareholders, all the Shares held by them in the corporate capital of the Company in accordance with the provisions of this Article 13 at the same time, at the same price and under the same conditions as the Dragging Shareholders (without prejudice to the provisions of Paragraph 13.1(iii)).

- (ii) by a Party who is a physical person, in the event of death, to their spouse, their descendants and their ascendants or for succession planning purposes;
- (iii) by a Party to a Controlling/Controlled company. The concerned Parties must prove such Control upon first request of the other Parties. Should the Control over the acquiring Company change after the transfer, the original seller is required to buy back the Shares, otherwise this will be considered as a transfer to which pre-emptive rights are applicable;
- (iv) as a result of an absorption, merger, or de-merger of a Party which is an entity, whereby the transferring Party retains Control, as stipulated above; and/or
- (v) as a result of the exercise of a Call option.

14.2 The Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that the Transfers of Shares set out in the Paragraph 14.1 above are subject to (a) the adherence of the Transferee to this Agreement as set out in Article 15 below (Adherence) and to other corporate documentation in order for the transfer to be valid assuming all the rights and obligations existing upon the transferring Party as well as any surviving obligation under the Investment Agreement, and (b) the Transferring Party remaining jointly and severally liable with each Transferee for any breaches of the provisions of this Agreement by the latter.

15 ADHERENCE

15.1 The Parties expressly agree and acknowledge that should a third party acquire and/or subscribe any Shares, as a consequence of (i) a Transfer of Share or (ii) issuance of new Shares or conversion of instruments of the Company, such third party shall adhere to this Agreement as condition to such acquisition or subscription, [pursuant to article [●] of the company law of [COUNTRY],] by way of execution of the deed of adherence attached hereto as Appendix 15.1 (the “Deed of Adherence”) whereby the latter irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement as if it were a “Party” hereunder and, in case of transfer, assuming pro-quota all rights and obligations of the transferor this Agreement pertaining to the relevant transferred and/or issued series of Shares. Upon delivery of such Deed of Adherence to all the Parties by such third-party, all references to a Party(ies) hereunder shall include the same third party as better detailed therein.

16.1 In any event that the Shareholders’ general meeting of the Company resolves a capital increase (other than (i) any capital increase reserved for directors, employees and/or consultants and/or managers in the context of an incentive plan intended for them and (ii) any capital increase made necessary by legal provisions for the recapitalization of the Company as a result of losses pursuant to article [●] of the company law of [COUNTRY]) that provides for a subscription price on a fully diluted basis for each newly issued Shares (hereinafter, the “New Subscription Price”) that is lower than the subscription price paid for by Angel Investors for each Class B Share (of the respective class held by them) in the context of the Angel Investment (hereinafter, the “Original Subscription Price” and the capital increase the “Dilutive Capital Increase”), the number of each Angel Investor’ Shares will increase, without the need for further contributions by each Angel Investor and without a special resolution of the Shareholders’ general meeting, as an automatic increase in the number of each Angel Investor’ Shares so that each Angel Investor’s shareholding in the Company’s corporate capital is the same as the shareholding it would hold if the Original Subscription Price had been equal to the New Subscription Price. It benefits from an arithmetic weighted average anti-dilution protection (hereinafter, the “Weighted Average Anti-Dilution Protection”) and the following provisions shall apply:

Therefore, for the purposes of determining the number of the newly issued Class B Shares to be allotted to each B Shareholder, the following formula will apply:

P_2 = Weighted Average Subscription Price

P_1 = Original Subscription Price paid by Class B Shareholders for each Class B Share in the context of the Angel Investment

A = the number of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Dilutive Capital Increase

B = the total amount received by the Company from the subscription and release of the Dilutive Capital Increase divided by P_1

C = aggregate number of the Shares issued in the framework of the Dilutive Capital Increase

16.2 the Weighted Average Anti-Dilution Protection in favour of Class B Shareholders is subjected to the subscription, in whole or in part, of the Dilutive Capital Increase.

16.3 Following the resolution of the Dilutive Capital Increase and the related Weighted Average Anti-Dilution Protection in favour of Class B Shareholders it is understood that in the event of any future Dilutive Capital Increases, the Original Subscription Price shall be equal to the Weighted Average Subscription Price. - (ii) in the event that the Market Value determined by the Expert on the basis of a valuation of 100% (one hundred per cent) of the corporate capital of the Company on a fully diluted basis is equal to or lower than the consideration of the Selected Offer, the Selected Offer shall be deemed made at a fair price and, accordingly, accepted by and binding on all Parties. In such event, the Expert's costs shall be deemed to be borne jointly by the objecting Shareholders;
- (iii) in the event that the Market Value determined by the Expert on the basis of a valuation of 100% (one hundred per cent) of the corporate capital of the Company on a fully diluted basis is higher than the consideration of the Selected Offer, the Selected Offer shall be deemed not made at a fair price and, accordingly, not accepted by and not binding on all Parties, unless the Angel Investors, at their own discretion, within the term of 10 (ten) Business Days from the Expert's decision, notify the Current Shareholders of their binding commitment to pay to the Current Shareholders the difference between the Market Value determined by the Expert and the consideration of the Selected Offer relating to the Shares of such Other Shareholder. It is understood that, in both the above cases, the Expert's costs shall be borne by the Angel Investors proportionally to their participation in the corporate capital of the Company;

20.3.7 shall the Selected Offer become binding on all Parties pursuant to Paragraph 20.3.6, the Parties shall, to the extent necessary, (i) negotiate the relevant offer in good faith; (ii) finalize the sale and purchase agreement and the other relevant transaction documents (provided that the final transaction documentation shall reflect, and be fully consistent with the provisions of this Agreement), (iii) enter into the sale and purchase agreement in respect of all the Shares or cause the Company to enter into the asset purchase agreement in respect of the business, as the case may be, and the other relevant transaction documents and (iv) proceed to closing in accordance with the terms of the sale and purchase agreement or cause the Company to proceed to closing in accordance with the asset purchase agreement, as the case may be;

20.3.8 in the context of the Trade Sale, the Shareholders shall assume customary non-compete and non-solicitation undertakings vis-à-vis the third-party purchaser.

21 TOP-UP ARRANGEMENT

21.1 Should the Angel Investors realize an exit through the sale of their Shares to (one or more of) the Current Shareholders, who subsequently resell their Shares (partially or not) at a higher price, the Angel Investors will be entitled to a supplementary payment:

- (a) should such a sale by the Current Shareholders take place within 12 months after the Angel Investors' exit, the exit value will be retroactively equated with the sale value;
- (b) should such a sale take place between 12-24 months after the Angel Investors' exit, then the Current Shareholders shall pay a percentage of the difference between the sale value and the exit-value of the Investors to the latter. This percentage will decrease in linear fashion by 8.33% for each month (from 100% to 0% over such a period of 12 months)

After 24 months the right to supplementary payment for the Angel Investors expires.

22 CLASS A SHAREHOLDERS' STABILITY, EXCLUSIVITY AND NON-COMPETE OBLIGATIONS

- 22.1 Without limitation to any other obligation provided for by the Law, each Class A Shareholder undertakes, as long as they remain Shareholder, director or employee of the Company and for the following 2 (two) years (hereinafter, the "Non-Compete Period") and unless it obtains the prior written consent of the Angel Investors' majority, the following obligations (hereinafter, the "Non-Compete Obligations"):

 - 22.1.2 to devote his full capacity and work activity in favour of the Company to the extent and for the time necessary to ensure the effective and profitable execution of the Company's duties and the development of the Company's Business;
 - 22.1.3 not to carry out in Italy or in the other countries of geographic Europe, directly or indirectly by means of third parties, natural persons and/or legal entities, Competitive Activities;
 - 22.1.4 not to assume or hold, either directly or indirectly through third parties, shares or interests in any enterprise, individual or corporate, company or other entity (unless in a listed company where it is a merely financial investment), based in any country of geographical Europe, that carries out Competitive Activities;
 - 22.1.5 not to hire or make offers of employment of any kind to employees or collaborators of the Company;
 - 22.1.6 not to induce, either directly or indirectly, any of the Company's employees, agents or contractors to terminate their employment, agency or consulting relationship with the Company;

 - 22.1.8 not to induce, directly or indirectly, any of the Company's customers, suppliers, sub-suppliers or distributors to terminate their relationship with the Company;
 - 22.1.9 not to develop, file and/or register any trademark (or other Intellectual Property asset), before any competent office worldwide, similar to or connected with those registered and/or used by the Company;

22.1.10 not to develop new inventions and/or patent before any competent office worldwide any invention that could potentially compete with the Company's inventions and products, whether patented or not, including any evolution or innovation of patents owned by the Company, as well as any other invention that could achieve the same result by using different technical solutions or that in any manner could interfere with the activity carried out by the Company.

22.2 The Parties acknowledge that the Non-Compete Obligations provided for in Paragraph 22.1 are an integral and substantial part of the overall transaction covered by this Agreement of which they are an ancillary covenant and find adequate remuneration in the set of rights attributed to them under this Agreement. Non-Compete Obligations do not apply in case of bankruptcy of the Company.

22.3 The Parties acknowledge and agree that neither Angel Investors nor any of the Angel Investors' shareholder or its Controlled or Controlling entities will be bound by any non-compete obligation - for any reason whatsoever - involving Angel Investors (or its partners, Controlled or Controlling entities), even in the event of a divestment from the Angel Investment in the Company.

23 CALL OPTION

23.1 If the cooperation agreement between a Manager and the Company terminates, for whatever reason, the [Angel Investors / Parties] (the "Shareholders entitled to the Call Option") have an unconditional right to purchase (the "Call Option") the Shares such Manager holds in the Company (the "Call Option Shares"). However, the Call Option does not apply if the termination is accompanied by the simultaneous conclusion of a new management agreement with the Company (e.g. for another assignment). It can be invoked in full if this new agreement is terminated.

23.2 The purchase right of the Shareholders entitled to the Call Option is relative to the number of Shares they hold in relation to the total number of Shares that all the Shareholders entitled to Call Option together hold in their possession (the "First Rank Shareholders"). The part of the Call Option that is not exercised by one party, belongs to the other shareholders who benefit from the Call Option. The Shareholders entitled to the Call Option can always reach a different distribution agreement. They shall inform the outgoing Manager and the Board of Directors of this at the appropriate time.

23.3 The Call Option, however, must be exercised by the Shareholders entitled to the Call Option on the totality of the Shares to which the Call Option relates.

23.4 The purchase right procedure is conducted between those parties who, within the time limit applicable to the pre-emptive right, have expressed their wish to exercise their Call Option.

23.5 The Call Option as granted by this Article is of indefinite duration.

23.6 The price at which the Call Option may be exercised is determined as follows:

(a) in case of a Bad Leaver Event, the Call Option Shares shall be transferred at a price equal to [25%-75%] of the Market Value of the Call Option Shares;

(b) in case of a Good Leaver Event, the Call Option Shares shall be transferred at the Market Value

(hereinafter, the "Call Option Purchase Price").

It is understood between the Parties that, in the first instance, the Market Value is determined in mutual consultation between the Manager and the Shareholders entitled to the Call Option. If the Parties do not reach an agreement on the Market Value of the Shares within a period of 14 (fourteen) days from the Date of Termination (as defined hereafter), they will in consultation with each other within the period of 14 (fourteen) days appoint an Expert. This Expert will determine the Market Value within 30 (thirty) days of his appointment in a final and binding matter. The date on which the Market Value is determined between the parties or the date on which the price is notified to the Company by the Expert shall be deemed to be the "Date of Price Determination".

- 23.7 The Call Option can be exercised up to [20 (twenty)] working days after the termination of the cooperation agreement with the Manager has been notified or agreed (the "Date of Termination"). At the time of termination, the Board of Directors will inform the First Rank Shareholders entitled to the Call Option by a registered letter in an "Initial Notice":
- (a) the Date of Termination of the cooperation agreement;
 - (b) the number of Shares on which the shareholders entitled to Call Option have a right to exercise the Call Option; and
 - (c) the number of Shares on which each party concerned has a Call option according to the proportional distribution.
- 23.8 The Shareholders entitled to the Call Option will contact the Manager for the determination of the Market Value. After the Date of Price Determination, each Shareholder entitled to the Call Option has [10 (ten)] working days to inform the departing Manager or his legal successors and the Board of Directors of the Company by registered letter whether he / she is exercising his Call Option and on how many Shares he / she will exercise the Call Option.
- 23.9 The Board of Directors shall communicate the result of this first round to all Shareholders entitled to the Call Option and to the Leaving Manager within [20 (twenty)] days of the Date of Price Determination (the "Second Notice").
- 23.10 As from this Second Notice, shareholders who have exercised their Call Option have [15 (fifteen)] days to confirm the number of Shares they additionally wish to purchase from the Shares that were eligible for the Call Option but were not purchased by the Shareholders entitled to the Call Option.
- 23.11 After this second round, the Board of Directors shall communicate the result of the round to all First Rank Shareholders entitled to purchase and to the Leaving Manager within [10 (ten)] days of the conclusion of the second round (the "Final Notice").
- 23.12 The transfer of ownership and the payment of the Shares for which the Call Option has been exercised occur simultaneously within one month of the conclusion of the Call Option procedure.
- 23.13 The proceedings are deemed to be closed:
- (a) on the date of sending the Second Notice if the exercise of the Call Option in this first round relates to all the Call Option Shares; or
 - (b) on the date of dispatch of the Final Notice otherwise.
- 23.14 The transfer of Call Option Shares' ownership only takes place at the time of payment.

- 23.15 During the period the Call Option procedure is ongoing, the voting rights attached to the Call Option Shares in the Company or the group related companies are suspended, without this suspension lasting more than 6 (six) months. The Leaving Manager always has the right to vote if a proposal for a decision seriously prejudices his rights in the context of the transfer as a result of the exercise of the Call Option.

24 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Shareholders' Agreement

Key Legal Considerations for Belgium

This one-pager provides an overview of the three most important legal considerations of the Shareholders' Agreement for cross-border investments in Belgium. For further legal assistance, please see the contact details below.

1. SHA in relation to default legal and statutory provisions

Under Belgian law shareholders' agreements may deviate from the articles of association of the company and default legal provisions without amending them. This means that arrangements in the shareholders' agreement may result in outcomes differing from those provided under the articles of association or default legal provisions.

Some applications of this principle may include:

1. The implementation of a shareholders reinforced majority for key decisions (as described in art. 6 SHA) may vary from the simple majority that is provided by the law or the articles of association.
2. The provision of conventional dispute resolution mechanisms in the SHA (e.g. arbitration clauses (art. 36.2 SHA) or Call and Put Options (art. 23 SHA)) in addition to the statutory dispute resolution procedure that is mandatorily applicable to the Belgian Public Limited Company ('NV') and the Private Limited Company ('BV').

2. Opposability and enforceability with regard to third parties

Share transfer restrictions included in the SHA are in principle only enforceable against shareholders. If it is desired that third parties are also aware of and should comply with said transfer restrictions, they should also be included in the articles of association that will then have to be published in the Belgian National Gazette.

Share transfer restrictions in the Belgian Private Limited Company ('BV') should always be included in the articles of association.

3. Free transfer of shares

There is a difference between the free transfer of shares of a Belgian Private Limited Company ('BV') or a Public Limited Company ('NV'). If the articles of association do not provide share transfer restrictions than the shares are:

- not freely transferable in the Private Limited Company;
- freely transferable in the Public Limited Company.

If it is desired to make the shares of a Private Limited Company freely transferable, than this should be expressly provided in the articles of association.
